

LONDON OPERA GLASS COMPANY

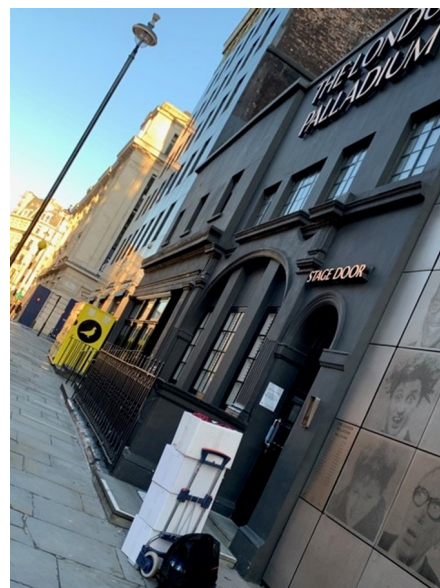

Latest News

Summer 2021

Hello there. It's all go at our HQ!

Well, despite the latest news, we're up and running and installing opera glasses as you read this newsletter.

Theatres we've visited recently include Shaftsbury, The London Palladium and Her Majesty's. They all have brand new sparkling opera glasses ready for their patrons and to kick-start their commission as soon as the curtain goes up.

On the subject of new...

I'd like to introduce you to David Rich who is our new Sales & Operations Director who replaces Martin Palmer and I'd like to take this opportunity to publicly thank him for his sterling work and dedication over the past few years.

If you'd like us to visit your theatre for an inspection, please email David on david.rich@operaglasses.co.uk and we'll be in touch. Please contact David as soon as possible as we are experiencing a surge in demand and want to make sure we can book you in.

Did you know?

The Dominion Theatre stands upon the site of the Great Beer Flood of 1814. The flood happened when the Horse Shoe Brewery burst open and flooded the surrounding area, with more than 570 tons of beer causing a 15-foot high wave!

Keep in contact!

Have we got your correct contact details? If not, please ping an email to david.rich@operaglasses.co.uk with your updated details.

In closing, we hope that you, your family and friends are safe during these challenging times. Take care and hope to see you soon!
