

LONDON OPERA GLASS COMPANY

Latest News

January 2022

It's great to see theatregoers returning!

Here's hoping that 2022 returns to the normality we have been used to, and that you have both a creative and successful year. Here's to 2022!

This week we've paid over £13,000 in commission

We're delighted (honestly) to have paid this amount to our theatres. Primarily, because it means theatregoers have been returning in substantially increased numbers to theatres since October 2021 and are regularly using opera glasses.

As a result, we've increased our service visits across the country. It's great for our team to be visiting theatres again, and good on you and your teams for rising to the challenges brought by COVID. Here's to the continuation of audiences returning and to a successful 2022!

WIN! £50 and two bottles of champagne

To celebrate the start of the year, there's a £50 High Street Shopping voucher and two bottles of champagne up for grabs in our easy-to-answer, easy-to-enter New Year quiz. Simply complete and return the attached four questions for your chance to win.

Top tip: improve customer experience

Make sure your team replace any missing opera glasses after each performance. In this way, theatregoers will be able to use them at the next show to make the most of their experience, plus your commission will increase too.

Philip

Philip Main - Managing Director

The London Opera Glass Company Ltd

philip.main@operaglasses.co.uk

www.operaglasses.co.uk